We understand your practice is working every day to protect patients, safeguard staff and caregivers, and limit the community spread of COVID-19. We need your help to keep Ohio's healthcare facilities safe, thank you for your ongoing dedication to the healthcare community.

One way you can help communicate appropariate messaging to your patients is to support the "Healthcare is Safe" campaign via social media by posting your own messages or sharing content posted by OSMA.

Healthcare is Safe in Ohio
Sample Social Media Posts for Practices:

Video 3: Healthcare is Safe, June/July 2020
https://youtu.be/zf7X7YLQ6zU

Facebook //

Healthcare in Ohio is safe, but to protect our patients, safeguard our caregivers, and limit the community spread of COVID-19, we need your help in following our visitation policies. This includes...
[Insert practice policies].

We encourage the community to follow healthcare facility visitation policies to limit exposure and the spread of COVID-19. Healthcare is safe—and you can help us keep it that way.

LinkedIn //

Healthcare in Ohio is safe, but to protect our patients, safeguard our caregivers, and limit the community spread of COVID-19, we need your help in following our visitation policies. This includes...
[Insert practice policies]. #HealthcareIsSafe #HereForYou

We encourage the community to follow healthcare facility visitation policies to limit exposure and the spread of COVID-19. Healthcare is safe – and you can help us keep it that way.
#HealthcareIsSafe #HereForYou

Twitter //

Healthcare in Ohio is safe, but to protect our patients, safeguard our caregivers, and limit the community spread of COVID-19, we need your help in following our visitation policies.
#HealthcareIsSafe #HereForYou

We encourage the community to follow healthcare facility visitation policies to limit exposure and the spread of COVID-19. Healthcare is safe—and you can help us keep it that way.
#HealthcareIsSafe #HereForYou